

Who we are

CWA-SCA Canada represents workers in newspapers, radio, television and new media across Canada. We also represent professional and administrative workers in other industries. We are a democratic union led and run by member volunteers. We are also an autonomous part of The Newspaper Guild and the Communications Workers of America union, which has more than 500,000 members.

CWA-SCA Union Retirees' Chapters

If you would like to speak to someone:

phone: 1-877-486-4292

email: info@cwa-scacanada.ca

website: www.cwa-scacanada.ca

address: CWA-SCA Canada
7B-1050 Baxter Road, Ottawa,
Ontario, K2C 3P1

A BETTER RETIREMENT A BETTER LIFE

How your CWA-SCA retirees' chapter can help YOU

A BETTER RETIREMENT A BETTER LIFE

A guide to the benefits of being a member of a CWA-SCA Canada retirees' chapter

What is a CWA-SCA Canada Retirees' Chapter?

A group of retired union members who work together to help protect the benefits and programs that are critical to their retirement, such as pensions, health care and social security.

The benefits of Membership

- Work with other CWA-SCA Canada retirees on mutual goals
- Stay connected with your union
- Stay connected with former work colleagues
- Social Activities
- Access to benefit programs

What does a CWA-SCA Canada retirees' Chapter do?

- Represent retired members' concerns and issues with their union. Monitor employer pension and health policies as they relate to retirees
- Track Government Legislation that affects retirees
- Engage in federal, provincial and municipal political action on behalf of retirees
- Work with other retiree organizations, unions and community groups on mutual goals

Who can be a member?

A retired member of CWA-SCA Canada and his or her partner. A dues-paying member of CWA-SCA Canada who has reached the age of sixty (60) and his or her partner.

How much it costs

An annual membership fee of twenty-five (25) dollars.

A BETTER RETIREMENT
A BETTER LIFE